

LWV Positions

Description

The LWVUS and LWVMA research and take positions on select issues. Our local chapter will then do our own research and choose what we wish to support and advocate.

Questions about Ranked Choice Voting

Watch the webinar hosted by LWVMA about ranked choice voting (RCV) recorded on Tuesday, Feb. 26, at 7 p.m. Adam Friedman of Voter Choice Massachusetts discussed how RCV works, how it might be implemented in our state, then answered questions. Voter Choice Massachusetts is a non-profit, non-partisan advocacy organization formed to champion RCV in Massachusetts after Maine passed the first statewide RCV law in November 2016.
